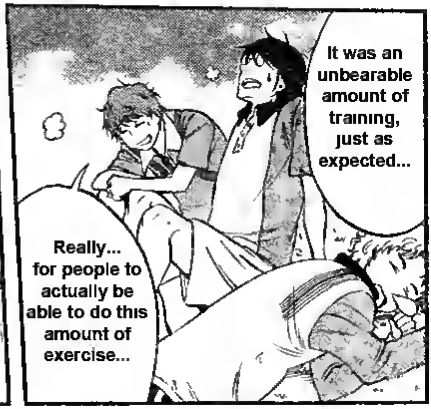
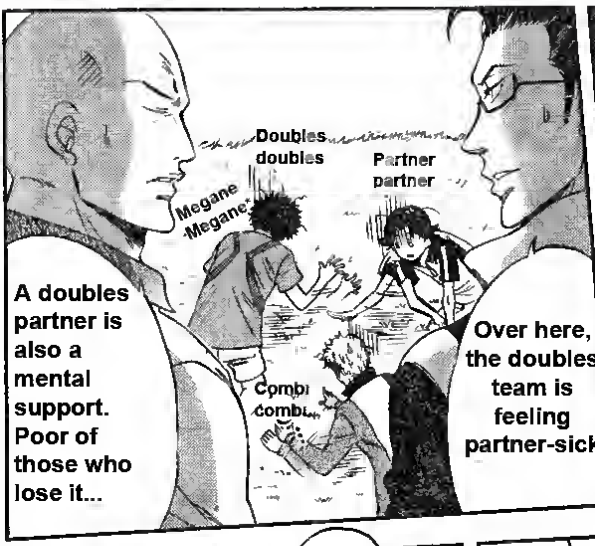
Even Atobe looks like the head of a company with Recall Problem
Nice analogy, Oshitari-kun



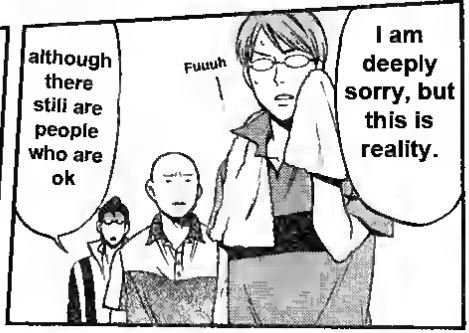
It was an unbearable amount of training, just as expected...
Really... for people to actually be able to do this amount of exercise...

How do you think a sick person would feel if you make him think about food?
Tonkotsu! Tonkotsu!
Oh! Good!!
When the training is over I'll make you a delicious tonkotsu, so hang in there!!
BLERGH

Don't say such unmanly things, Kamio!
Uh... Tachibana-san, I am so tired I think I will throw up...



Doubles doubles
Partner partner
Megane Megane
Combi combi
A doubles partner is also a mental support. Poor of those who lose it...
Over here, the doubles team is feeling partner-sick



He's quarrel-ing about that kind of thing?! Isn't that pretty impressive !?
He's began a petty quarrel with the high-schoolers again
It was about which colour the mont blanc is, yellow or brown!

I'm sorry, Mizuki-kun! What has our Akutsu done now!?
I'm telling you that it troubles all of us when you act on your own!
Don't boss me around !!

*note: the megane joke is... old but recurrent in the world of pot. More on yokoyama yasushi http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EHmIRQqWNPY Of course: Megane, megane, megane go go is also based on this~DD

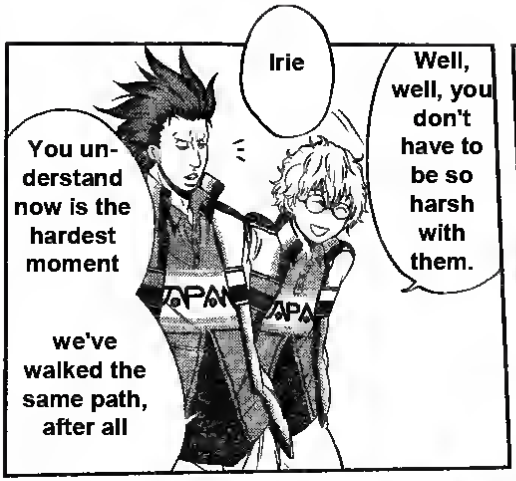
The lights is on until morning in a room. It's a bit creepy.
Aaaah! It sounds like some kind of sutra chantings
The high-schoolers go on a spree until late at night so I don't get enough sleep
Well, there are only conceited middle-schoolers around after all
No doubt the sempais will get stronger.
Yeah
It seems everybody has complaints regarding the high-schoolers
What!? Who are you calling a demon?!
Oni appeared!
Koraa! middle-kids! It's no time to relax!
Eh!? But isn't that your surname!?



Irie
Well, well, you don't have to be so harsh with them.
You understand now is the hardest moment
we've walked the same path, after all

Winning team, pull yourself together! You're the ones remaining!
Hey, stand up!

It will be a problem if you give up now
Though it's certainly too early to have a rest

It's high time we do that.
Damn! we were taken for fools.
Yu-kimura buchou !
That's right...
How vexing ... !!

That night
... Yukimura
Just as you say
The buchous from all the schools have arrived in their pajamas, but...
Eh---
What is...
What is this supposed to be !?!
Don't you mean a "strategy party" pajama council?
That was a boke* line, Tezuka-kun
Which is its purpose?
Well, this is a "strategy council" pajama party!!!

* note: Boke here means hazy or ambiguous [referring to the arrangement of the non-focus and focus words in title structure]

Oh!
YES
What a potent utterance about taking advantage of one's position.
Well, actually, the kouhais are their sempais' play toys though I have never been played with.
It makes me feel sorry for Kirihara.
PFFFF
We can have a recreational time with the high schoolers during our breaks...
The solution to the problem is becoming friends with them, of course.
I've been here from the start !!!
Minami! Since when were you here?
THEN SAY SOMETHING!!
We are not obligated to act friendly with them.
You're right. we'll have to defeat them sooner or later at any rate.
Well, rather than bothering with high schoolers or anything else, we should concentrate on training first.
O-don't laugh, you
AHAHAHAHA like playing A-Tisket, A-Tasket or fruits basket
Uuuuuhn. What a boring opinion. Let's say something more interesting.

Befriending them, huh... Just as expected, Minami-sempai, what a good idea
If I can do anything at all...
Freakishly good audition
In the adjacent room
Not a thing.
Hey, can you hear anything, Kamio?
Where are you going, Ohtori?
Right now?
Eh?
I'm going out for a moment.
Hirari sempai, good evening!
No, Ohtori-kun, welco~~~me!
Geh!?

What is it, what could it be, brother--
But, I wonder if it's correct to ask...
Don't worry, you're like a saint ("benefactor of god") to me after all!
ポン!
Ummh... I have something to ask you sempai-tachi
Eh? A request?
Then, without further ado
That's right! If it hadn't been for that ball, we wouldn't be talking here like this after all!
Y-yeah...
Wouldn't you hold a welcome party for us middle-schoolers as quickly as possible?

Wha...
WHAT DID YOU JUST SAY !? OUR WEL-COME PARTY HAS BEEN DISCOV-ERED !?
No. he didn't mean that...
He appeared to be impatient and wanted us to hurry and do it.
Nope...
Did you say some-thing?
It's pretty obvious it was Irie's sax, right?
That thing makes a hella noise
Maybe it was because ev-eryone else was grinning that we were caught?
Where could we got discovered? ... We knew we were holding a welcome party.

Well, us too, we are still working out the soul words on our announced rap program
No, not at all
What... well, did you finish your amigurumis already?
What are we going to do now?
Getting caught on our surprise is not something to be ashamed of
Because we are high-schoolers!
If they want us to rush, we will have to rush!
Are you telling me not to sleep, Irie...!?
Let's hurry and get it done in 3 days time.
Let's show them our adult composure!
We aren't nearly ready!
Eh!? That's impossible!

Eeeeh
No way
Let's give our best!
Alright! From tonight on we will train three times as hard!
ハ〇ラ〜〜…
Making the middle-schoolers lack even more sleep
The high-schoolers trained (practiced for the party) harder than usual thus lacking even more sleep
Combined with the hard training, each team's frustration increased!

I was afraid the welcome party I suggested would turn into a fight, but I think this will motivate us to get along with the high-schoolers.
Adversity makes us tougher! I'll find peace in this training camp! Shishido-san!
But nah, too much trouble, I'll just leave it in this room.
...or so I thought
Oni was so embarrased that in the end he didn't present them with the amigurumis!
Well, it can't be helped. I will have to go all out as an out-of-season Santa!

The high schoolers' stylish (?) performance finished with a mildly good ending ?

Ah! Don't these amigurumi have the faces of the losing team?
